

TOWN OF VIENNA, VA: DEPUTY CHIEF OF POLICE

ABOUT THE TOWN

The Town of Vienna is a vibrant, close-knit community about 15 miles west of D.C. with a strong tradition of civic engagement and public safety. With a population of approximately 17,500, our town offers a high quality of life, a charming small-town atmosphere, and a full range of municipal services.

The Police Department is composed of 41 sworn officers and 11 civilian employees. More details can be found at the link below.

Police | Town of Vienna, VA

DEPUTY CHIEF OF POLICE:

Pay Grade 131: $120,760-$194,423

The Town of Vienna is seeking an experienced and principled law enforcement professional to serve as Deputy Chief of Police. This executive leadership position assists the Chief of Police in overseeing daily operations, supervising personnel, managing budgets and training, and supporting community-oriented policing initiatives. The ideal candidate is a strategic and ethical leader who values transparency, innovation, collaboration, and community trust.

Requires Bachelor's degree in law enforcement, Legal Studies, Forensics, or closely related field and ten years prior law enforcement experience, preferably at upper departmental level with authority over operations and administration, or closely related experience.

Other minimum or equivalent qualifications are detailed in the Town's posting. View complete description, salary ranges and apply online at www.governmentjobs.com/careers/vienna Closing Date: 1/18/26